

29.12.2009

Open Position / Project Engineer

Enercomp Oy is leading Energy Saving provider for Pulp & Paper industry. Enercomp Oy provide complete solutions and latest know-how for reducing electricity in motor driven applications. We are now in strong growing phase and we need more resources to fulfill customer demands.

Now we are looking for Project Engineer / Project Manager controlling and supervising tasks in energy saving Process in Pulp Paper customers.

Project Engineer is also responsible customer reporting and optimization process. Our sales need your advisory in customer negotiations and technical support.

Because most of job will be done in customer mills your home location could be anywhere in Finland.

We expect from hired person.

- Engineering education in the field of process, automation or electricity
- Experience from pulp or paper process.
- Control system and automation knowledge
- Good communication skills.
- Ability to work in tight schedules.
- Available to travel more than 100 days / y

Send your job applications to Pekka.ilmaranta@enercomp.fi before 30.1.2010
If you want to know more of this position call Pekka Ilmaranta +358 40 5626237